BARRETT'S
Felt and Composition Roofs,

Which, on account of their extraordinary Fire resisting qualities, have been appropriately denominated the Salamander Roof.

THIS KIND OF ROOFING WAS INTRODUCED into Cincinnati, Ohio, some ten or twelve years ago, by the Messrs. Warren, whose name it that section generally bears; and by virtue of its intrinsic excellence, and in spite of all opposition, is gradually won its way to popular favor, and is now generally preferred to any other kind of Roof, by all those who have inquired into the superior of its many and great advantages. Having been tested under every variety of circumstances, this Roof is confidently offered to the public as one which combines in a greater degree than any other the important qualities of cheapness, durability and security against both Fire and Water.

It was introduced into Chicago seven years ago, and so great is the satisfaction it has given here, that among the [illegible] elegant and costly buildings erected in the city within the last six years, there is scarcely one in ten that has not been covered with it. [illegible] we would mention the Marine Bank, Masonic Temple, [illegible] Bank, Ross & Foster's Store, Briggs House, Metropolitan Hall, and more than half of the elegant blocks of [illegible] on Lake street, between Wabash avenue and Franklin street. Indeed, we may take Lake and South Water streets through their whole extent, and we find that nearly every other building is covered with our Roof, and [illegible]

CITY ITEMS.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—We are indebted to W. A. Murphy, Esq., General Western Agent of the N. Y. Central Road, for St. Paul papers of the 16th.

POCKET PICKED.—On Wednesday night a gentleman from Cincinnati had his pocket picked of a wallet containing $500 in bank bills and some papers at the Central Depot. The thief has not been found.

BURGLARY ON STATE STREET.—The boarding house on State street, near Randolph street, occupied by Mrs. Irwin, was entered by burglars on Wednesday night, but the thieves obtained nothing of value.

WATCH STUFFER.—A fellow who gave the name of Joseph Armstrong was arrested on Wednesday night at the Central Depot, by officer Douglass, for attempting to sell a "stuffed watch" to a countryman. He was brought before Justice Milliken yesterday morning, and discharged for want of evidence.

NEW MUSIC.—Messrs. Higgins Brothers, No. 66, Randolph street, have just published No. 10 of Cady's popular home songs—"O'er the billow our light bark is dancing," a spirited ballad; the "Concert Polka" a graceful composition; and No. 13—"Rosalie Clare," of their edition of favorite songs,—a touching and beautiful ballad.

HOTEL ROBBERY.—On Wednesday night the room of a guest at the Watkins House, was robbed of a wallet containing a large amount of bank bills. A search warrant was issued by Justice Grant, and constable Carthew found the wallet and money in an old tool chest where it had been secreted by the thief. No arrests were made.

FREE FIGHT.—Griffith Brickheart and David Jones got into a quarrel in a saloon, in Wells street, and by agreement they went into the back yard to fight it out. After a dozen rounds the police interfered and brought the belligerents before Justice Milliken, who fined them $10 each. They were covered with blood and their faces shockingly disfigured.

QUICKEST TIME YET.—Between thirty and forty guests were at the Tremont house yesterday, who left New Orleans on Friday morning last, at nine o'clock, and reached this city at nine o'clock on Wednesday night, making the trip in five days and a half, or one hundred and thirty-two hours. They came to Cairo on the steamer H. D. Newcomb, and thence by the Illinois Central Railroad to this city. This is the shortest time yet recorded between New Orleans and this city.

BENEFIT OF MR. COLLINS.—Mr. Collins, whose excellent impersonations of Irish character have delighted full houses at North's Theatre during the whole of this week, takes a benefit to night. The bill, as will be seen by the advertisement, is a very attractive one, and should draw a crowded house. No one can see Mr. Collins and fail to be impressed by the belief that he is one of the best, if not the very best, Irish comedian now living. He will sing to night his famous song, "Hail to the Union!" in the chorus to which the whole company will join.

KANE COUNTY DIRECTORY.—A copy of Ferslew's Kane County Directory and Gazetteer has been laid on our table by the agent, who is now in this city for the purpose of selling copies of the book. It contains the names and occupation of the residents in all the cities, villages and townships in the county, census of the county, names of county and town officers, boundaries of elective precincts, a well-written history of the county and much other valuable information. The book is well printed and bound, and business men here will find if a valuable work for their counting rooms.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.—McNally has received Godey's Lady's Book for July. This is the first number of the fifty-fifth volume, and contains, beside the usual amount of reading matter, a handsome colored fashion plate, and patterns for embroidery, etc. Godey has long been a favorite with an immense number of the American public, and he seems determined to maintain the advantage he has secured.

THE REGATTA ON THE FOURTH.—We notice that the members of the different boat clubs are actively engaged in preparing for the grand Regatta to take place on the Fourth of July. Although the weather has been unfavorable for the past ten days, still the crews are getting in good practice, and upon the day of the race they will doubtless be in fine condition for their work. On almost every pleasant morning and evening the basin presents a lively and exciting appearance with the four, six and eight oared gigs, and the double and single pairs of "sculls," darting hither and thither, or indulging in a friendly half mile contests for the plaudits of the lookers on, who are often assembled in considerable numbers to witness the inspiriting scene, and enjoy the invigorating breezes from the lake.

WANTS.—There is a surprisingly large class of persons not aware of the practical, daily palpable advantages of advertising. The supply of things required by mankind is marvelously matched by the demand, and the only requisite for placing in everybody's hands, everything desired, is to bring the producer and consumer—he who would sell, and he who would buy—together. That particular essential is the interior life of the system of advertising. If any of our readers has a house to rent, or wishes to rent a house, or wants a cook or chambermaid, a gardener or coachman—or anybody able to specify ability to do something, wants an employer—or anybody finds anything and wants an owner for it, or loses anything and would find it—try the effect of a dollar invested in our Wants column and watch the result. Our word for it, the dollar planted in this way will yield fruit at once.

PUTNAM FOR JULY.—We have received an advance copy of Putnam for July, which commences the tenth volume of this popular magazine. The present number contains twenty-one well written articles in addition to the literary notices and editorial gossip, several of them profusely illustrated. In the way of "pictures" it is not inferior to Harper. Among the many able papers contributed to this number we especially recommend an attentive perusal of the one entitled "A Short Exercise for the 4th of July." It is peculiarly appropriate at this stage of American politics.

House building in America is pregnant with useful hints. A sketch of Lord Brougham is not the least interesting article before us.

We are pleased to see that the publisher has adopted the useful precaution to trim the edges of the leaves, thereby sparing the reader considerable annoyance in trying to open with his fingers, and generally tearing the reading matter in the effort. This little thing of trimming the edges is of much more importance than most publishers imagine.

SAFE BLOWN OPEN—BOOKS AND PAPERS DESTROYED.—Yesterday morning, one of the firm of Messrs. Tanner, Andrews & Co., Commission Merchants, doing business in North Dearborn street near the dock, on going to the counting room found the safe open, the papers contained therein torn and scattered about the floor, the books cut and mutilated and about $600 in bank bills missing. There were marks of exploded powder about the key hole of the safe although the lock was not, apparently injured, and yielded readily to the key.

Soon after the office was opened the book keeper, Mr. Joseph De Graph, came in, and commenced picking up the scattered papers. He had been in but a few moments when he commenced trembling violently, betraying a great deal of agitation. This fact added to some others induced his employers to have him arrested and he was accordingly taken into custody.

It appears that De Graph has not balanced his books for some time past, and his employers' suspicion being excited that all was not right, insisted that the books should be balanced to-day or they would have the matter investigated. It is rumored that De Graph had used money belonging to his employers, and fearing an exposure has, upon one pretext and an other, got rid of balancing his books for nearly two months, and that, finding it impossible to evade the matter any longer mutilated and partially destroyed the books and papers, to escape detection. It is supposed the powder was exploded about the lock for the purpose of inducing a belief that the safe had been opened and plundered by burglars.

De Graph is a young married man, residing on the corner of Des Plaines and West Van Buren streets, and is said to have lived in better style than his means would admit of. The examination will probably take place to-day; meantime the accused is held under arrest.

THE EXECUTION OF JACKSON TO-DAY.—[illegible] William Jackson will be compelled to undergo the severest sentence of law for the murder of Roman Morris, last year, in Lake County. Nearly a month ago, every preparation was made for the execution of the wretched criminal, but on the day preceding that appointed for carrying out the sentence, the Supreme Court interfered, and Jackson obtained a respite until to-day.

Thus far little or nothing is known relative to the past life of Jackson, save what he has told to Mrs. Davis, a lady who has taken much interest in the spiritual welfare of the condemned man, and his statement, as taken down by her, will be published in pamphlet form to-day. Since his sentence he has been, to all persons except Mrs. Davis, [illegible] and taciturn, talking but little. His bearing has been remarkably calm, and none of his attendants have perceived the slightest [illegible] of terror as the time has approached for him to die. His spiritual advisers are confident that he has exhibited a decided change of heart, and that he has an abiding faith in the justice and mercy of the Most High. The last few days he has prayed often and read his Bible almost constantly.

The arrangements for the execution, which will take place between 12 and 1 o'clock this afternoon, are all completed. The ground selected is the open prairie, a short distance south-west from the Bull's Head.

Carriages containing the prisoner, his spiritual adviser, the Sheriff and his deputies, physicians, &c., will leave the jail at precisely 11 o'clock, under the escort of the Dragoons, for the place of execution. A strong force of policemen will be posted about the Court House yard and the avenues leading to it, and a crowd will not be permitted to congregate there. The procession will move down Clark street to Lake, and up Lake to nearly opposite the Bull's Head, when it will turn South. The infantry will form at a place to be designated near Bull's Head, and from thence will march to the scaffold, and form a hollow square about it, for the purpose of keeping back the crowd. We understand that Jackson has determined not to make an address from the scaffold, and that the execution will proceed as rapidly as possible, after reaching the scaffold.

THE MILITARY AND THE EXECUTION TO-DAY.—LETTER FROM GOVERNOR BISSELL.—Some days ago Sheriff Wilson addressed a letter to Governor Bissell requesting him to order out a number of Volunteer Companies to preserve order at the execution of William Jackson, which is to take place to-day. It is to be hoped our military companies will volunteer cheerfully to aid the Sheriff in the performance of his duty and secure the rightful execution of the law.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 17th, 1857.

DEAR SIR—I have no power to call out the militia except where actual necessity for it already exists. There are certain cases in which I can do so, but the one to which you refer is not one of them. I can only express the hope that they will voluntarily and cheerfully turn out in such numbers as you may require. I hope there may be no occasion for action on their part, and presume there will be none, and yet I trust you will, so far as possible, provide for such a contingency. I cannot think that the militia will fail to perform their duty as good and law loving citizens.

Yours very respectfully,
WM. H. BISSELL.

JOHN L. WILSON, Esq., Sheriff.

We understand that several companies have already volunteered, but more are required, and there should be no difficulty in obtaining them. The Dragoons, Montgomery Guard, German Rifles, Highlanders, National Guard and National Guard Cadets will turn out. What other companies will be on hand?

SAENGERBUND FESTIVAL.—We have already noticed the reception of the different societies on Wednesday evening and yesterday morning, by delegations from the societies here.

Yesterday at 11 o'clock, the guests from, and members of societies in this city, assembled in the German Hall, North Wells street, for the purpose of a more formal welcome than had been extended. The Hall was tastefully decorated with banners, wreaths of oak leaves and mottoes. Extending entirely around the gallery was an immense wreath of oak leaves, hanging in festoons, and equidistant, against the balcony of the gallery, were placed ovals in white, and bearing the following inscriptions of names of the different societies in attendance:

"Turn Verein—Chicago."
"Freier Sangerbund—Chicago."
"Saengerbund—Milwaukee."
"Turn Gesangverein—Mokena."
"Gruth Verein—Milwaukee."
"Saengerbund—Davenport."
"Manner Gesangverein—Joliet."
"Milwaukee Turn Verein."
"Liederkranz—Peoria."
"Saengerchor—Peoria."
"Mannerchor Musekverein—Milwaukee."
"Socialer Sangerchor—St. Louis."
"Mannerchor—Davenport."
"Saengerbund—Freeport."
"Mannerchor—Madison."
"Gesangverein—Blue Island."
"Manner Gesang Verein—Chicago."
"Freier Saengerbund—Milwaukee."

Above each oval, and projecting from the gallery, were placed the banners of the different societies, many of which were elegantly wrought and very beautiful.

Over the stage doors, on each side of the procession, were mottos selected from Schiller, and surrounded with oak leaves wreaths. The mottos were:

"DEM SAENGERBUND!"
"Und so finden wir uns wieder,
In den heiter'n, bunten Reih'n,
Und es soll der Kranz der Lieder
Frisch und gruen geflochten sein."

"FRAUEN UND SAENGER.
"D'rum soll auch ein ewiges zartes Band,
Die Frauen und Saenger umflechten,
Sie wirken und weben, Hand in Hand,
Den Guertel des Schoenen und Rechten."

In the centre of the procession, above the stage, was the motto, also wreathed in oak leaves, "Welcome to the Singers." The effect of the decorations was very fine, and reflects much credit upon the taste and skill of those who prepared them.

Ald. Wahl, chairman of the committee of arrangements, called the assembly to order, after which the Chicago societies sang a song of welcome to their guests, which was given in a spirited and effective manner. Ald. Wahl then delivered a brief address, in the German language, at the close of which the speaker was heartily applauded.

Mr. Kriesman, of the Committee of Arrangements, announced that the balance of the day would be spent in social converse, rehearsals, etc, and in the evening the grand concert would take place at the Metropolitan Hall, and the company separated, each to enjoy himself in his way until evening.

Of the concert we shall speak at length to-morrow, the lateness of the hour at which it closed precluding our giving, in this issue, such a notice as it is justly entitled to.

In consequence of the almost impassable condition of our streets and the continued rain, the Committee of Arrangements have decided not to have the procession until to-morrow, but the programme for Saturday will be substituted for that designed for to-day.

EDITORS TRIBUNE:—While all are rejoicing at the present healthy condition of our city, I would call your attention to one evident cause of an unhealthy atmosphere which should be removed. I allude to those dirty, filthy, dish water and garbage holes so often found, not only about the hovels of the lower classes, but in the rear of some of our first class residences, the rich display of whose inmates but poorly contrasts with their want of proper order and neatness.

I am officially informed that notices to abate such nuisances have been served upon our upper tendom, who may "get the benefits of the Sanitary Ordinance."

Please publish this as a hint to persons at fault in this respect, and unless the cess-pools are soon cleansed, I may in my next particularize blocks, buildings, and, if necessary, Nos.

COMMERCIAL.

CHICAGO WHOLESALE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE, }
Wednesday Evening, June 18, 1857. }

Flour and Wheat are without change to-day. Corn is a shade better, and sales show another advance. There is an improved feeling, and a firm market for this staple. Oats are not animated, and the only inquiry we hear of is for the local trade. Charters to-day show a little better feeling for Ontario ports, but there is no change in rates to Buffalo. The weather continues rainy and unfavorable for building and other purposes. We note sales and nominal rates as follows:—

FREIGHTS.—Schooner Marshfield gets 8c for wheat to Oswego, and another vessel 8c for wheat from Racine to Kingston; the schooner Fairchild gets 7c for corn to Kingston.

FLOUR.—Sales on 'Change of 350 bbls "Centre" and 150 bbls "Arcadia" at $6,25; 40 bbls "Camden" at $6,75; a dullness exists, except for local trade, to city bakers, &c.

WHEAT.—Sales of a cargo of spring at $1,23 on board, 7,000 bu and 8.000 bu at $1,22 on board, and a cargo and a half in smaller lots at same figure; 1,800 and 1,200 bu do at $1,20 in store; 100 bu white at $1,60 to mill.

CORN.—Sales in the [illegible] of 117 000 bu in 6 lots as follows: 10,000 bu at 67c on board 1st of July; 12,000 and 10,000 bu at 63c on board Saturday; 20,000 bu and 30,000 bu at 66c on board 1st of July at buyer's option; and 15,000 bu at 65c on board 1st of July at buyer's option. This afternoon, the feeling is still better, and parties offer 64c on board now, holders asking 65c; 25,000 bu sold for next week on private terms.

OATS.—Sales on 'Change of 3,500 bu at 54c on board, and a car load (600 bu) at 52c in store.

RYE.—Sales 1,10 @ 60 lbs.

HAMS.—Sale of 11 casks Louisville Hams at 13¼c.

SUGARS.—By an error, prices of sugars were left out of our yesterday's report. Rates for raw sugars are unchanged. E. S. Hunter, Agent in this city of Belcher's Sugar Refining Company has furnished us with the following prices of refined Sugars, by eight packages and upwards:—Loaf Sugars, quoted for double refined, 15¼c; small loaf sugar O, 14¾; crushed sugar, double refined, 15c; crushed sugar, O, 14¾c; powdered sugar, double refined, 15c; powdered sugar, C, 14¾; refined white sugar, O, 13¾c; refined yellow sugar, A, 13¾c; refined yellow sugar, B 13¼c. Their Syrups are as follows: Sugar House Syrup Molasses, 2 bbls, 75c; Extra Sugar House Syrup, 80c; Golden Syrup, $1 in bbls, $1.07 in hf bbls, $1,05 in kegs. New York Syrups are 80@85c, and lowest grade molasses 65@70c: Extra Golden 82c; Stewart's and Booth & Edgar's, N. Y., 90c.

COFFEE.—Rio 12¼@13c, Java 17@17½c, and Laguira 13¾@14c.

SOAPS.—Common 6c ℔ lb. German Erasive 9½@10c.

TOBACCO.—Superior Cavendish 35c—the range is 75@80c ℔ lb. Natural Leaf 40@50; Jewel of Ophir 50c.

SALT.—Dairy $3,25 ℔ sack of 220 lbs, including sacks. 14 lb sacks 14c—from jobbers 15c. Fine ℔ bbl by cargo $1,05; ℔ 100 to 230 bbls $1,90; from dock $1,85; single bbl $2. Coarse, no sale, nominally held at $2 ℔ 320 lb casks.

FRUIT.—Lemons $5@5,50; Oranges $6,50@7,00 ℔ box. Dried Apples scarce at $[illegible]; Dried peaches, pared, are 20@25c, and unpared 14c ℔ lb, with good inquiry. Raisins, cluster, $5; new W.R.'s, $3,50; layers, $5,75@6.

WELLAND CANAL.—Passed up, June 13—Propeller Ontario, [illegible]

[illegible]

The Michigan (N. Y. Co.) arrived this morning on her way to Milwaukee and Chicago with a cargo of new freight. She took on a lot of freight and a number of passengers for Mackinac and Grand Traverse, and left at 3 P. M.

We learn, by a private dispatch from Buffalo, that the steamer Western Metropolis, of the Buffalo and Toledo line, took fire at the Buffalo dock this morning, and was considerably damaged.

The captain of the propeller Michigan reports a sail vessel ashore at Bois Blanc Island, opposite Grand River Bluffs, C. W. [illegible]

ST. CLAIR FLATS.—Last Saturday was the day appointed for opening the proposals for [illegible] the St. Clair Flats. We understand that several bids were made, all by Eastern gentlemen. Capt. Whipple has accepted the proposals of Mr. Barton, of Buffalo, subject to the approval of the Secretary of War, at about 30c per cubic yard.

The appropriation of last Congress ($45,000) was made, we believe, upon the hypothesis that this amount would be sufficient to place the Flats in good navigable order. This is by no means the case, and we hope a movement will be made to secure the early day [illegible] an adequate appropriation. Let the press and the public speak out, in a manner becoming the importance of the subject.

Fire in Memphis.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 18.

An extensive fire broke out last night in Front Row, destroying a whole block occupied by the Bank of East Tennessee, Commercial Bank, J. W. McCracken & Co., Goodlet, Nobers & Co., Stuart, King & Co., S. McMannis, Griesman & Hoffmann, and a number of offices occupied by cotton factories. Loss not yet ascertained.

Destructive Flood in Corning, N. Y.

CORNING, N. Y., June 18.

The village of Corning is flooded. The principal bridges and walks have been torn away, and the destruction of property is immense. The laboring classes have suffered severely, a large number of their houses being washed away.

Communication between the upper and lower parts of the town is entirely cut off.

The running of trains on the Erie Railroad is obstructed, but they will doubtless be repaired to-morrow.

LATER.—The freshet has in a manner subsided, and the danger is now over. The cellars of the business portion of the village are filled with water, and masses of timber fill the streets.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, June 18.

The examination just completed in the Coast Survey Office, fully confirms the fact of a sufficient depth of water in Long Island Sound for the passage of the Great Eastern.

Mr. Barwell has been re-appointed Surveyor of Customs of Wheeling. This completes the action of the Administration, in all cases where the commission of custom house officers have expired.

Baron Van Liembourg was yesterday introduced to the President by Ass't Sec'y of State Appleton, and delivered his credentials as Minister of the King of the Netherlands.

Mutual assurances of a desire to maintain the friendship which has always existed between the two Governments, were expressed.

Baron Von Liembourg was in full court costume.

The President has officially recognized Jean Nottbeck as Vice Consul for Russia, at New York.

New York News.

NEW YORK, June 18.

The stewart of the steamship Fulton was arrested yesterday, charged with smuggling $50,000 worth of diamonds.

The steamship Star of the West is to take the place of the Central America in the U. S. mail line, on Saturday next.

Gen. Walker held a levee yesterday at the Lafarge House, and attended the Bowery Theatre in the evening, where he made a brief speech.

Our city remained quiet at sun down. All special Metropolitan Police were discharged; and many of the Mayor's Police withdrawn from the City Hall.

The Governor returned to Albany this afternoon. Judge Russell closed the proceeding in first Habeas Corpus by discharging the Mayor from arrest. The Grand Jury have under consideration the complaint of the Mayor, and the calling of a special term of Oyer and Terminer in July for the trial of the Mayor.

Mr. Crofeet one of the Metropolitan Police, beaten on Tuesday, died to-day.

THE RIGHT "Not to be sued," which has been fully established for our colored fellow citizens by the decision of Judge Taney, in the Dred Scott case, is likely to be a useful one. The Bangor Whig gives the following report of a case in the police court in that city:—

"David Sands vs. William Barronett, action of debt for $20, balance of account. The defendant being of 'African descent' and 'having no rights which white men are bound to respect,' put in a special plea that under the late decision of the U. S. Supreme Court by Judge Taney he is not a citizen of the United States, and therefore can't sue in any court, nor be sued. The learned counsellor for the plaintiff, being a hunker of the most hunkerish stripe, immediately upon reading the plea wilted and allowed a non-suit. It is maliciously said, in groups where politicians do most congregate, that the counsellor had fears for his political standing, if he dared oppose the decision of Judge Taney, which is universally received by the Democratic press as a part of their party creed."

THE COST OF ROYALTY.—The British people do not like the liberality of Parliament in the matter of the dowry to the Princess Royal so well as they thought they did. The proposition for paying the whole dowry and annuity down in ready money rather opened the eyes of the people to the size of the burden that is being placed on their shoulders, and some of the English papers are publishing other statistics of the existence of royalty, which are quite new and startling to the people, so accustomed are they to an unthinking acquiescence in the established order of things. The expenses of the royal household look rather formidable. The lord steward has $10,000 per year, the treasurer $4,520, the master of the household $5,790, the comptroller of the household $4,520, clerk of the kitchen $3,500, the gentlemen of the wine cellar $2,500 each. Other officers of the lord steward's department receive an aggregate of $125,000. Then follow a long list of personal attendants, ladies of the bed chamber, maids of honor, lords in waiting, ushers, grooms, equerries, &c., receiving an aggregate of $335,000 per year. Thus the expenses of the royal household reach $515,000 per year. Most of the offices are occupied by noblemen, and the duties are merely nominal. But the amount of money drawn from the treasury is a stubborn reality. If the mother country cannot get along without such toys as a royal family, a nobility, and a state church, it must pay for them. It will outgrow them if the world stands long enough.

SALE OF PUBLIC LANDS IN IOWA.—The Mitchell county Republican says that the entry of lands at the Osage Office, since the public sale, has been going steadily forward, at the rate of from 12,000 to 17,000 acres daily. A fortnight since, C. W. Stratham, of Lynchburg, V., tendered gold for 3,820 acres, calling it over by township, range, section and quarter-section. The register refused to comply with the demand on the ground that the land should be served out in smaller quantities. No man has been allowed more than 640 acres in his name; but some have managed to get larger amounts, by putting forward proxies. Stratham has taken evidence, and intends to appeal to the Department at Washington, in the hope of getting a recognition of his demand, or break up the sale.—Iowa City Republican.

The Weather and the Crops.

For a few days we have been getting more rain than could be conveniently used for farming purposes or for inland navigation. The streams in the neighborhood have been raised to "concert pitch," and the highest of the season, but no danger has occurred to either men or cattle that we hear of.

A gentleman from Sugar Grove informed us a few days since, that on examination of the winter wheat in that village a large portion of what appeared to be wheat, was found to be chess. The crop about here is not sufficiently advanced to determine without minute inspection, the extent of that blight. We examined yesterday a handful of stalks taken at hazard from our own field, and found no chess at all, and shall believe, "until otherwise ordered by the courts," that the chess alarm is mainly without cause. Spring wheat, corn, oats and potatoes—[illegible]—give good promise of an abundant yield. They really look comfortable and comforting.—[illegible] Gazette.

Ice! Ice!

THE CRYSTAL LAKE ICE COMPANY have now well secured an inexhaustible supply of PURE CLEAR ICE, taken from Crystal Lake, McHenry County, and having provided increased accommodations, and obtained a large number of new teams, with experienced and trustworthy drivers, are prepared to supply the citizens of Chicago with ICE, in any quantity, and at reasonable prices.

The Company has taken the delivery of the Ice into its own hands (which was not the case last year), and our patrons may be assured that their orders will be filled promptly, and by careful men.

Orders may be left at the Company's Office, 62 Dearborn street, or addressed to Post-office Box 2230.

Great Auction Sale of Lots in Prairie du Chien, Wis.

ON WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24TH, 1857, WE will sell, in front of our office, in Prairie du Chien, upwards of sixty one
RESIDENCE AND BUSINESS LOTS.

Prairie du Chien is rapidly becoming one of the most important commercial points in the North west. It is the Terminus of the Milwaukee & Mississippi R.R.
Which connects with the Chicago & St Paul Railroad at Janesville, and is on that great Highway of Commerce, the Mississippi River.

The Site of the City is a high level prairie, requiring scarcely any grading; surrounded by bold, high bluffs. The scenery is of unrivalled beauty.

The lots to be sold are mostly in the vicinity of the Railroad Depots and Steamboat Landing. The sale will commence at ten o'clock in the forenoon. Among the Lots to be sold, are the following:

IN LOCKWOOD'S ADDITION.—Lots 8, 14, 15 and 16, block 6, near the new Hotel. Lots 1, 2, 9 and 10, block 10.

IN BEAUMONT ADDITION.—Lots 1, 5 and 11, block 8.

IN BRISBOIS' ADDITION.—Lots 12 and 13, block 4. Lots 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14, block 8.

IN LOWER PRAIRIE DU CHIEN.—Block 26. Land Co. No. 1, sixteen lots to be sold together. Lot 5, block 2, Land Co. No. 1. Lots 1, 2 and 8, block 16, with house, barn and improvements. Lots 1, 12 and 13, block 19. Lots 5, 7, 10, 11, 13 and 16, block 35. Lot 3, block 45.

☞ Thirteen choice Lots in the south part of Lower Prairie du Chien.

TERMS will be made known at time of sale. Some lots will be sold for cash; others, small payment down, and balance on time.

200 Building Lots
In the Town of Cherry Grove, Carroll Co., Ill.,
ON THE RACINE & MISSISSIPPI RAILROAD,
AT AUCTION,
ON SATURDAY, JUNE 20, AT 10 A.M.
ON THE PREMISES.

WE SHALL SELL 200 LOTS IN THE beautiful town of Cherry Grove, in Carroll County. This place is situated on the Racine & Mississippi Railroad, which will be completed the 1st of July, and eighteen miles west of Freeport, in one of the best farming regions in the country. This County is settled by some of the best farmers from Pennsylvania and Western New York, and Cherry Grove is one of the best points on the line of the Racine & Mississippi Railroad for a large interior town. There is at this time sufficient business to sustain and give a handsome competence to a Wagon Maker, Tinsmith and Harness Maker; and a Steam Mill could do a large and flourishing business. For a Lumber point it cannot be excelled, being accessible from Chicago, Racine and Milwaukee by Railroads.

The Plat is at our office, and any information desired can be given there. Parties desiring to attend the sale should take the Friday evening train to Freeport, and will be taken to the ground by Mr. Hill, of the Keystone House, at Freeport, free of charge.

DAILY TRIBUNE.

No. 51 CLARK STREET.

CITY OF CHICAGO.

Friday Morning..............June 19, 1857.

The Indian War.

The St. Paul Times, of the 15th, is happy to learn from the St. Peter Free Press that the statement copied by us from the Henderson Democrat, in relation to the murder of the Indians sent out to rescue the remaining captives is not true. Mr. McCulloch left the mission since the publication of that story, and he states that the last news received from the rescuing party was up to Wednesday night of last week, and at that time they had approached to within two day's march of the renegades' camp, and had met with no dificulty.

Does Not Desire.

The Dubuque Express & Herald has "pretty good authority for saying that Gen. Dodge has no desire" for the office of Governor of Iowa. If there is any office in the gift of Iowa or the General Government for which Gen. Augustus Caesar Dodge "has no desire," the phenomenon will surprise a great many people on both sides of the Mississippi. Mr. Dodge does not desire to run for the office of Governor of Iowa, simply for the reason that he can't run fast enough.

Massachusetts Industry—Bonnets.

The Boston Traveller, in an article devoted to the bonnet business, says that in Franklin, Massachusetts, somewhat distinguished for its manufacture of straw goods for half a century, there has been nearly one hundred thousand cases of bonnets manufactured within six months. These cases probably contained seven millions of bonnets, enough for one quarter of the heads, great and small, old and young, in the United States. It will be recollected that the above statement embraces only six months. If we add to this the fall trade, the number of bonnets will probably swell to ten millions. Add to this the number made in one other town in the State, (Foxboro') and we shall probably have twenty-five millions for this year. Two towns thus furnish about one bonnet each for every man, woman and child in the Union. As the men do not wear bonnets, and the babies do not need them, these two towns must furnish every woman in the land with two bonnets each—a very good supply.

Fashionable ladies are apt to suppose that their new hats are exact copies of the "latest Parisian touch." The Traveller, in undeceiving them, says that the style for the season is regulated by agreement among manufacturers solely for the purpose of avoiding the distractions in trade incident to a great variety of patterns in the market at the same time. The manufacturers complain that business has not been so dull for ten years as it is this spring. If this is an an indication that the ladies are "fixing up" their half-worn hats to fit them for another season, the fact is a healthful one; but if it means that foreign importations are taking the place of the home-made article, the end is not yet.

Mass Convention at Milwaukee.

The Wisconsin has the following report of the morning session of the Convention held at Milwaukee, on Wednesday to consider the Dred Scott decision, and kindred abominations:

> The Convention called for the consideration of the new issue forced upon the country by Justice Taney and his confederate slavocrats, held a preliminary meeting at Albany Hall, this morning at 11 o'clock. We were surprised to see so large a representation from the country, and so considerable an assembly at a preliminary meeting. A more intelligent looking body of men are seldom seen at a political gathering.
>
> The meeting being called to order, the Hon. Chas. Durkee was appointed temporary Chairman, and Harrison Reed, of Winnebago county, elected Secretary. On motion of Martin Mitchell, of Oshkosh, a committee consisting of Messrs. Webb, of Waushara, Holton, of Milwaukee, Harvey, of Rock Co., Dale, of Racine, and Stont, of Green Co., was appointed to report permanent officers for the Convention.
>
> The appointment of a Committee to prepare Resolutions and draft an Address to the people of the State, was discussed by E. D. Holton and Booth, of Milwaukee, Densmore, of Walworth, and Chase, of Racine.
>
> The following committee was appointed on resolutions: Booth, of Milwaukee, Holt, of Rock Co., Alban, of Portage, Smith, of Sheboygan, Bingham, of Green, Boeser, of Manitowac, and Orvis, of Fond du Lac.
>
> Mr. Bailey, editor of the Daily News, of Newport, Kentucky, was called upon for remarks. He addressed the audience for a few minutes, in a very interesting manner. Though living in a slave State, his paper held high and bold anti-slavery grounds. For this he had been annoyed and persecuted, with fiendish pertinacity; his house and office were burned, and suits for slander, and every other imaginable offence, continually brought against him. He had fought his way, so far, single handed; he had rebuilt his establishment and issued his paper. Nine opposition papers had died out since he had been in the field. Mr. Booth stated that Mr. Bailey had lost $30,000 in the cause, and needed his hands strengthened, to retain his ground. The majority of the citizens of Newport supported the paper. The opposition came from the outsiders.
> At the suggestion of the Chair, contributions were made up for Mr. Bailey to some considerable extent.

We are unable to obtain a copy of the resolutions adopted by the Convention. The Sentinel says "the meeting in the afternoon was "one of the largest and best ever held in our "city or State." The principal address was delivered by Hon. Gerrit Smith, of New York, and was received with marked interest. Mr. Smith took the ground, that the Constitution of the United States is an Anti-Slavery document, and his demonstration of this position was frequently interrupted by the applause of the audience.

In the evening, addresses were made by Mr. John Brown, of Kansas, S. M. Booth, Prof. Daniels, and others. The resolutions reported by the committee were unanimously adopted. A vote of thanks was passed to the Hon. Gerrit Smith, and at a late hour the Convention adjourned.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

BOAT LIFE IN EGYPT AND NUBIA; by Wm. C. Prime. Harper & Brothers, New York.

For lovers of all that is luxurious in travel, of all that is glorious in memory of the grand, the beautiful, the picturesque and the strange, Egyptian travel is the perfection of life, and in these days when every man is a "travelled man," the reading public have a chance of becoming as intimately acquainted with the scenes and places as if they themselves were the authors instead of the readers. The book before us has boldly stepped out of the beaten track and gives one a vivid, graphic, and at the same time truthful picture of what the title purports to be. What can be more glowing and genial than the sunrise scene at Aboo-Simbel, more regal than his wanderings through the stately halls of Karnak, and dimly foreseeing the future down the stream of time from the lofty summit of Cheops. Go with him to that mysterious historical mausoleum, the Holy Sepulchre, where the fanatic and the christian meet, thinking to do God service. Kneel with him in the silent and gloomy Gethsemane, each spot being hallowed by the footprints of our Lord; go with him in spirit from spot to spot and when your brief mirage pilgrimage is ended, you will rise up more than ever anxious to visit the land of the Oriental.

With these few "pencillings by the way," we commend to our readers this last book by Wm. C. Prime. There are in it for all. The student will find ample study in it over his midnight oil. The lover of fun can indulge in a burst of merriment over the "wrong Mummy" or the "Donkey Dervish;" but many if not all will drop a silent tear over poor Tonge's death, a stranger in a strange land, and referring to the heading of the chapter, "He sleeps well," will exclaim "Hinc illae lacrymae."

GLENCORE: By Charles Lever. New York: Harper and Brothers.

Mr Lever's books are so well known to American readers that we have only to say that Glencore embodies the excellencies without the faults of his other fictions, to insure it a rapid sale. It is less boisterous and rollicking than his earlier stories; but it has enough of that wild Irish humor and reckless Irish devilry, to [illegible] if there were no name on the title page, its authorship.

Presbyterian Church Schism.

In regard to the secession effected in the Presbyterian Church, by Dr. Ross, the N. Y. Independent well remarks:

> A new branch of this Church is now to be [illegible], for the purpose of [illegible] that [illegible] social iniquity which on this side of the Rocky Mountains answers to Polygamy on the West. The basis upon which this Church is to be organized is, that "the subject of slavery," not slavery itself, but the discussion of slavery, shall be "utterly eschewed," and the "agitation of that question shall be unknown." The question whether it is lawful for members of this Church to buy and sell their brethren as chattels; the question whether it is right for members of this Church to [illegible] by violence the chastity of women, in order to stock a plantation; the question whether members of this Church may [illegible] for their own gain, forcibly [illegible] husband and wife, parents and children—these and like questions are to be [illegible] by the very constitution of this Church. [illegible] get rid of such questions that the [illegible] Church is to be formed. Singularly enough, [illegible] organize a new Church upon that [illegible] by an associated chattel slavery [illegible] in the [illegible] the new Church [illegible] and the new Church of slavery.

Mr. Douglas and the Missouri Republican.

As we expected, when we published the letter of our Springfield correspondent, describing the late Shamocratic meeting in Springfield, and giving the heads of Mr. Douglas' remarks, his friends deny the truth of the report. They know that the speech as delivered is a thorough stultification of the orator—a fair and square backing out of what he has maintained ever since 1854—a complete going over to Calhounism with which he and his friends have been coquetting for years past—a confession that he is a humbug, and the old Democratic, and now Republican, doctrine of the Sovereignty of Congress in the Territories, is the only tenable ground upon which the statesmen of this country can stand. He will go on delivering this speech wherever he speaks at all, and his defenders will, we suppose, continue to lie, as the Missouri Republican—the greatest liar of them all—is lying now.

In relation to that correspondent, we have only to say that he is a gentlemen as well posted up in the political affairs of this country as is Mr. Douglas himself, and that, unlike Mr. Douglas, he is incapable of deliberate misrepresentation. He heard every word that fell from Mr. Douglas' lips; and though the Missouri Republican's reporters tell a different story from that related by him, we shall take his word as against the reporters, editors, publishers,—the entire personel—of that most mendacious of all American newspaper establishments. He writes us again to-day; and from his letter it will appear what sort of a report the Republican will have—a report from Mr. Douglas's own hand, with the offensive, and most disreputable parts stricken out; and this will pass for the great Springfield speech!—

And now a word for the Republican: If we had not had a long test of the veracity of that sheet, commencing with the troubles in Kansas and continuing to this day, we might believe its assurances in ordinary matters of fact, where there was no temptation to lie; but since the monstrous falsehoods of its reporters, correspondents and editors in relation to events in that Territory—falsehoods persisted in after their baseness was proved by testimony that would hang half of St. Louis—we have never permitted ourselves to receive its testimony as presumptive evidence of the truth of what it says. If it had ever shown the least disposition to retract its slanders or atone for its malignity, we could forget its sins, and hope that it had been mistaken. But it is as false and venomous now, as when its every paragraph was a lie. But for the editors of that sheet, we should cease to believe in total depravity.

Douglas at Springfield.

[Correspondence of the Chicago Tribune.]

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 17, 1857.

Messrs. Editors:—Senator Douglas is here yet and it is said by those who ought to know, that he is revising his speech. The one he made here on Friday last, does not suit even this meridian. The one that is to be published, will be to the peculiar tastes of this section and your people wholly disregarded. I have heard many of his warmest friends say this—"Douglas made a failure as a whole; he backed down from the principles of the Kansas Nebraska bill; he most emphatically repudiated what he has heretofore said about Utah; he was weak and washy on Kansas; and neither said whether he wanted it a Free State or a Slave State, or whether it would be one or the other." By-the-by, this is candid for a sham Democrat, and is as true as candid. Douglas has disappointed his friends here, and I understand he said: "D——n the speech, I could not get a-going—I made a failure. Mr. Reporter, (the Missouri Republican's) did not report it; I will write it out."

The iron-chain Democracy are continually huddling together, talking over the Senatorial race, and are evidently making grand preparations for a desperate fight. Douglas says—"Boys, my fate depends on this battle, and it must be fought most cunningly and desperately. You are me and I am you. If I go to the wall, you sink." The Democracy are preparing for the Senatorial canvass, and it will be fought as no canvas was ever fought in Illinois. Mark that. Desperation is the motive power of the iron-ball Democracy. Liberty and Justice are the inspiring motive force and power of the Republicans. These are terrible enemies, but who does not know to whom the victory belongs? Whether now, or in 1860, the victory will blaze, like a nimbus, from the banner of Republicanism. To effect this, counter energy, organized, and well organized, alone can give us the victory. Then, Republicans to the work. The Democracy that is so called, are meeting, firing up, organizing, and laying off plans, for the future. The Democracy are meeting at the land offices, post offices, and other places, as supposed, to show hands, to see how matters stand, or to levy a tax on the officers to defray the expenses of the campaign. The chain Democracy are gloomy but determined.

Mr. Lincoln is now in Bloomington, but it is ascertained that he is soon to address our citizens in the Hall of the House of Representatives on the same subject that Mr. Douglas spoke about. Lincoln's speech is to be an answer to the turgid and false one of Mr. Douglas; it will be an answer, and such a one as Douglas' friends will not want to hear. I say in advance, Lincoln's speech will be an answer to Douglas' rant. All persons who know these two men know that Lincoln is more than Douglas' equal, politically or legally—head or heart—yes, in any relation. These two men are the fit representatives of the respective principles they each advocate. Lincoln is for liberty; Douglas for slavery; the first for justice, and the second for might.

I really suppose the sham Democracy here are making arrangements for the contest that is to be, and the Republicans must look out or be taken all aback, when the race is over and they are defeated. Douglas is here to give advice and to see that his party friends are well organized—well paid and well drilled in the multifarious duties of the street talkers—convention packers—blowers—strikers—pole watchers—liars, &c. The latter class is exceedingly numerous here.

Cannot the Republicans soon get together and have a talk, and see how the "world wags" in political matters. I think this would be a judicious move. I do not mean to say that more than a dozen from all parts of the State, should get together just now.

It is evident that Douglas has many friends in town, who have come from a distance to hold conversation together. Senator Douglas said to some of his friends—"Gentlemen, I am not the author of the present move in reference to Utah. I am anxious to get the honor, but the Republicans are the authors; they waked up the morals of the nation, and we were compelled to do something, or sink out of sight. I drew up the Utah bill, but think the Republicans have forgotten my speech in Chicago in 1852. If they hunt up that speech I am gone. D—n these published speeches; they fly in a man's face and cry—"Father," in the presence of the world."

Great Storm in Minnesota.

[Correspondence of the Chicago Tribune.]

RED WING, M. T., June 15, 1857.

Our town was visited by a tremendous storm on Friday last, which continued with unabated violence till this morning. To say that the windows of heaven were opened would feebly express the inundation of the country. The whole establishment was turned inside out. The steam flouring mill on Spring Creek, owned by Messrs. Stearns & Hobart, is entirely gone—the walls washed away, and $10,000 carried off in a flood of rain water. A barn on the bank near the mill floated down stream with a valuable horse. On the flats just above, a dwelling house belonging to a Swede was carried away bodily. Nothing has been heard from any of the occupants since, and it is supposed they are all drowned. Bell Creek has risen fifteen feet, and all the bridges on that and Hay Creek have gone down the Mississippi. What is the end of these disasters no one is yet able to say. Property has been destroyed in this vicinity to the extent of many thousands of dollars, and the storm must have extended over a great range of country.

C. C. L.

In addition to the above, we clip the following from the St. Paul Times of the 15th:

> The storm of Sunday night and yesterday morning did terrible execution—undermining houses, making huge chasms in the roads, and washing the face of nature in a very summary manner. We rose in the morning at the usual hour, made our toilet, and took a stroll down town to "get a bite" to eat; what was our agreeable astonishment to find the chair in which we sat at supper submerged, and the water standing two and a half feet deep under our breakfast table! Under the circumstances we thought we wouldn't indulge.

Official Clapper-clawing.

[From the Minnesota Times, 16th.]

Yesterday Col. Nobles, President of the Pacific Wagon Road Co., and Willis A. Gorman, Esq., late Governor, and member elect to the Constitutional Convention, had a "bit of a fight" opposite the First Presbyterian Church. It seems that one of the gentlemen called the other gentleman "a liar," whereupon the other gentleman hit him a dig between the eyes, at which he took offence and gave him a sockdologer with a shillalah he happened to be carrying; whereupon the other gentleman returned the compliment by effectually closing one of his peepers; whereupon another gentleman separated the gentlemen, and invited them to retreat in a couple of carriages—which they did, each being glad to get away from the other. We heard one of the gentlemen remark, as he parted reluctantly with his [illegible] friend, "I shall remember you, Sir!"—and we rather thought he would, by the looks of his damaged eye.

P. S.—We learn that after the melee, Col. Nobles was arrested for assault and battery on complaint of ex-Governor Gorman, and taken before Judge [illegible], who, considering it rather a [illegible] affair all 'round, discharged the prisoner without the customary proffer of "good advice."

THE POPULATION OF SPAIN.—A new census of Spain is nearly completed, and will show a population of 17,000,000. The population in 1849, when the last census was taken, was 14,[illegible],000, including the Spanish colonies, [illegible].

FROM KANSAS.

GREAT MEETING AT BIG SPRINGS.

WALKER TURNS TRAITOR!

Speeches from Walker, Stanton and Jim Lane.

[FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.]

TOPEKA, K. T., June 11, 1857.

There was a great meeting yesterday at Big Spring, some ten miles from this place.

The citizens of Lecompton and Tecumseh (the only Pro-Slavery towns left in the Territory,) turned out en masse, but were out-numbered by the Free State men five to one.

A little after two o'clock Gov. Walker took the stand, and like a base coward [illegible] the Free State Legislature and the Topeka Constitution without [illegible]. The evening before, he had spoken fairly to the citizens of Topeka, but when out of their hearing, heaped upon them and their policy the most scurrilous abuse. He even went so far as to say, that though the Missouri invasion might have been wrong and unjust, the idea of enforcing a code of laws, under the Topeka Constitution, upon the people of Kansas, would be far more villainous.

Stanton followed Walker and spoke against time, in order to prevent Jim Lane from speaking, when the crowd were restless to hear.

But the Secretary was out of ammunition, and Lane got the stand.

The General made one of the best speeches that I ever heard him deliver, took down Walker in a most satisfactory manner, and sustained the Topeka movement right strongly.

The speech was received, with great enthusiasm, and the pro-slavery-ites grew very melancholy and serious.

Walker's apostacy has created a deal of indignation hereabouts, and his accomodating his views and sentiments to different occasions and circumstances has not had a tendency to increase confidence in his integrity. For one, I am completely disgusted with the Lilliputian demagogue, and feel satisfied that his aim and desire is to distract and divide the Free State party without any regard to the best interests of Kansas.

Quite an incident occurred during the day which is too good to be lost.

Attorney General Weir, having become somewhat nervous and excited, asserted that the Free State men were a set of d—d cowards.

Judge Smith, a man of fifty years and more, overheard the expression, and proclaimed it false. Weir didn't like the lie direct, and told the Judge that his age alone protected him from a thrashing. "Then take thirty years from my age" replied the Judge "and meet me as though I were but twenty-one." Weir finding that he had a man to deal with, backed out ingloriously by asserting that the Judge was surrounded by friends; to which the Judge promptly replied that they could go out alone on the prairie and fight it out.

This worried the Attorney General still more and he finally vamosed in a most cowardly manner.

After Lane had finished his speech, Perrin tried to make his old and stereotyped address, but the people having heard it two or three times, left the house with a rush, and Perrin found himself without an audience.

The events of the day have been quite significant. Walker has shown his true colors—proved himself a traitor and an apostate.—Stanton has sunk himself even lower (if this be possible) than ever in the public estimation.—The plot and scheme of the Federal Administration have been developed and the people have shown themselves as true as ever to the principles for which they have so long struggled.

Three times three, say I, for Free Kansas and the Free State party thereof.

JUNIUS.

Organization of the Free State Legislature.

Message from Gov. Robinson.

[From our Special Correspondent.]

TOPEKA, K. T., June 11, 1857.

At last the Free State Legislature has met and organized. A quorum was present in both houses this evening, and the Legislature proceeded to business.

A joint committee from the House and Senate were appointed to wait on his Excellency, Gov. Chas. Robinson, to inform him of their organization, and that they were ready to receive any communication from him.

The committee waited upon the Governor and gave him the information.

Gov. Robinson thanked the committee, expressed his gratification at the organization, and immediately sent a message to both Houses by his private Secretary, which message I herewith enclose.

Five thousand copies in English and one thousand in German, were ordered, and the message was cordially and enthusiastically received.

The Legislature transacted no other business except to appoint a joint committee of three from the House and two from the Senate, to prepare a memorial to Congress praying for admission to Congress under the Topeka Constitution.

The best feeling prevailed, and the Legislature adjourned until to-morrow morning at nine o'clock.

The message will be found to be ably written and, in every respect, a most admirable paper. The Governor treats his subject with a master hand, calls things by their right names, and sustains the Topeka movement by the most clear and satisfactory argument.

The Legislature will, in all probability, immediately proceed to enact a code of laws, provide for town and county organizations, and make the Topeka Government the living Government of the people.

In closing, I call the particular attention of the TRIBUNE readers to Gov. Robinson's address, which should be widely circulated throughout the States.

JUNIUS.

Minnesota Election—A Fraud Contemplated.

[From the Minnesota Times, 15th.]

Hon. Joseph Rolette left this city yesterday for his home in Pembina. Mr. R. will make a quick trip through, and return with the Delegates to the Constitutional Convention.—Pioneer.

There seems to be an evident determination on the part of the "unterrified," to insist upon the admission of six members from Pembina to the Convention to form a State Constitution. Now as the somewhat imaginary Pembina district is outside of the proposed boundaries of the new State, it appears like the most insolent presumption for the representatives from that Territory to claim a seat, and we do not doubt that they will be respectfully excused from mingling in the deliberations.

On this point the enabling act of Congress, authorizing the people of the Territory to form a State Constitution, says:

> And be it further enacted, That on the first Monday in June next, the legal voters in each representative district, then existing within the limits of the proposed State, are hereby authorized to elect two delegates for each representative to which said district may be entitled according to the apportionment, &c., &c.

Now as Pembina is not "within the limits of the proposed State," but west of the Red River in the New Territory of Dakota, we had not for a moment supposed that she would have the assurance to walk up here and ask admission. Pembina has been legally entitled to three representatives in the Legislature, and everybody knew that this apportionment was a miserable, ridiculous farce, but now, for six outsiders to present credentials of election, exhibits the fraud in magnified proportions.

There are but two places of voting in Pembina, one at Pembina precinct, and the other at St. Joseph's, at the foot of the mountains, 30 miles west—both of them outside "the limits of the proposed State," and yet from the movements of the Democracy, it is apparent that a desperate attempt will be made, impelled by all the sophisms, lies, and duplicity of which a party of reckless politicians is capable, to foist these alien squatters upon a Convention of Minnesotians! Let all the Republicans be prepared for any game of villainy; let them buckle on their armor to meet the Devil in every possible shape; let them keep their eyes wide open, trust to nobody but their own righteous majority, and oust these interlopers before they take their seats, or a half dozen imported half-breeds, that know little about our wishes, and care less, will ride rough shod over our liberties and our laws! Let every man be on his watch—for the future—and the near future—will develope some crazy games of fraud.

COAL IN MISSOURI.—On visiting the levee a few mornings since, we found the steamer Dubuque tied to the bank, and stepped on board for information.

We learned that she had just arrived from Bennett's landing, on the Missouri river, one hundred and sixty-two miles above the mouth. Her cargo consisted of about one hundred and sixty tons of coal, which she took to the gas works and the rolling mill, and delivered for twenty-two cents per bushel. This coal was brought to the surface of the ground about seven miles from the river in Calloway county, by the Calloway mining and manufacturing company, and is a portion of an inexhaustible quantity that has been discovered in the veins of fifteen, thirty-five, forty and eighty feet. It bears some resemblance to the cannel coal, and is said to burn beautifully.

The company will have a yard prepared at the upper end of our landing in a few days, where the Dubuque, which will make regular trips, will deposit her cargoes of coal, which will probably be sold at a lower figure than the price named above. Mr. Miller, clerk of the boat, will accept our thanks for lump of coal.—St. Louis Democrat.

MARKETS—IOWA CITY AND CHICAGO.—The disparity between the price of produce here and at Chicago, (the great commercial mart of the West) is striking. All the products of the soil ought to be 25 per cent. less here than at Chicago; yet they are actually from 30 to 60 cent. higher. The disparity, so far as relates to Corn and Oats, is accounted for by the fact that the stock is actually exhausted in this immediate vicinity. Yet, the distance they are brought does not justify the price. What causes the most remark, is the difference in the price of Flour. Wheat, at Chicago, is worth $1.25; here, it is worth $1.10; while Flour, at the former place, brings $6.75. It has been selling here, during the past week, at $8.25, and now commands $8. We pretend to no explanation of this disparity; we merely state the fact, as one that occasions much remark, and is certainly prejudicial to the interest of Iowa City as a supply point.

Corn is worth 50a55c. at Chicago; here it is $1. Potatoes here $1.50a1.75; at Chicago $1.—Iowa City Rep.

TOTAL ABSTINENCE FROM BEEF.—The butchers in some of the Philadelphia markets put in force the principle of total abstinence from beef; last Friday, the prices asked by the drovers being so high that the butchers refused to purchase. Their customers, [illegible] to content themselves with mutton, pork, (probably still-fed,) and vegetables.

A Miserere.

The editor of the St. Joseph (Mo.) Gazette, who is a warrior as well as orator and politician, seems to be in an unhappy frame of mind. He has "wielded pen and sword in behalf of the rights of the South" in Kansas, and is naturally grieved to find so much prowess run to waste. The following from a late number of the Gazette will doubtless find sympathizers even in this latitude:

> It is with deep pain that we call the attention of our readers at this particular juncture, to the affairs of our neighboring Territory. From the organization of the Territorial government of Kansas, we have devoted our best energies to the cause of the South, so far as it is connected with the domestic institutions of Kansas. We have wielded both pen and sword in behalf of the rights of the South. In peace and in war, when the Pro-Slavery party was exultant in prospect of triumph, and when the demon of civil strife desolated her fields—when the Union seemed to totter to its very centre amid the conflicts of hostile parties—at all times we have been the firm, the unwavering, the consistent advocate of justice to the South as it regards her peculiar institutions. Our course was influenced by the firm conviction that the maintenance of the political equilibrium of the two great sections of our country, is essential to the perpetuity of our Union. If abolition fanaticism is to continue its unholy war upon the constitutional rights of the South—if we are to be deprived not only of all participation in the common territory of our country, but our rights are to be assailed at our very altars and firesides until the fell purposes of political demons are accomplished, it is our firm belief that upon the plains of Kansas, the South should have met their enemies and there decided the question forever. With Kansas a free State, think you, deluded people of the South, that all danger is past, that you are not to be further molested in your rights? Has not the foul viper of abolitionism, already raised its crested head in the halls of the Missouri Legislature? Does not every concession add to the audacity of abolitionists? Does not every triumph embolden them to make still farther aggressions on the South? And yet what has the South contributed towards extending her domestic institutions over Kansas? We say it with mortification that her course towards her friends in that Territory has been marked by the deepest ingratitude, and that she has been recreant to her most vital interests. The struggle has heretofore been been sustained almost entirely by the border counties of Missouri.
>
> It is true, when it was expected the question would be fixed by force of arms, a few volunteer companies were sent from some of the Southern States, and who no doubt, had an occasion offered would have rendered efficient service. But when quiet was restored, their mission was at an end; and they have for the most part returned home, or sought with Titus, far distant fields upon which to display their military prowess and gratify their love of adventure.—But could any reasonable man expect that the destiny of Kansas was to be decided by the result of a single campaign against a vile herd of cowardly fanatics? And yet when Lane was expelled the territory and his armed vagabonds dispersed, our southern heroes returned home, as they would from campaigns in a foreign country, to secure swords and laurel wreaths for feats of gallantry displayed in charging thro' cornfields and attacking poultry yards. The result has been just what every sane man must have known. Peace retored, the emigration from the free States has been unprecedented. Some of the largest pro-slavery counties are being rapidly filled up by men hostile to slavery. Places where an abolitionist once dared not to show his face, for fear of tar and feathers, have acctually become the abode of men, who six months ago would rather have gone into a lion's den than a pro-slavery town. Yankee ingenuity is proverbial. Sharp's rifles it was found could accomplish nothing. They sent balls with great force but with no accuracy.
>
> It was moreover a kind of argumentum ad hominem at which the Southern Hotspur excelled. There was another argument, however, which at all times has had great force, the "argumentum and poculum." This, the indefatigable Yankee has pressed with great success. He has discovered that Pro-Slavery men who would fight to the death for their principles, would yet barter them away for money, and Kansas this day belongs to the abolitionists. The weight of the gold in the pocket argument, has preponderated over every consideration of honor and every feeling of patriotism. That notorious outlaw, Jim Lane, who, but six months ago, was pursued by Pro-Slavery men, like a hyena by blood-hounds, has suddenly become very popular with the Pro-Slavery patriots. They have discovered in him, of late, attractions which they were not aware of before. Although they knew he had no weight of character, they have felt the weight of his gold in their golden dreams at least.
>
> There is scarcely a pro-slavery town in the Territory in which Lane is not more or less interested. The advent of this land pirate into a town is hailed by its patriotic pro-slavery inhabitants with demonstrations of great joy—shares go up immediately fifty per cent., and the more extravagant anticipations of wealth divert the excited imagination. Abolition capital is not only securing the possession of pro-slavery towns, but it is even silencing the pro slavery press. Atchison, that was once the citadel of the pro-slavery party, has most ingloriously struck her colors, and surrendered to the enemy all her munitions of war. The Squatter Sovereign, the big gun, whose canister heretofore carried havoc into the ranks of the enemy, has been turned against us and weekly proclaims in tones of thunder the disgrace and degradation of the South. "How are the mighty fallen and the weapons of war perished." Even in Doniphan city, the "Tigers" crouch at the feet of their manager Jim Lane, and seize with avidity the few morsels he from time to time deigns to throw them. Again, we say, "How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished."

Artesian Well in Springfield.

[From the Springfield Journal, of Wednesday.]

At a meeting of the City Council, on Monday night, an ordinance was passed, authorizing the Mayor and Committee on Fire and Water to subscribe $3,000 on behalf of the city, to the stock of a company for boring an Artesian well. It will be remembered that, at the last session of the Legislature, a charter was granted for that purpose; and now we hope to see this project taken in hand at once, and something done with this liberal appropriation or subscription that will at least satisfy the public of the practicability or impracticability of supplying our city with water by an Artesian well.

THREE CHILDREN DROWNED BY THEIR MOTHER, AT LEONI.—On Thursday, the 28th ult., the village of Leoni, Jackson County, Mich., was the scene of a terrible tragedy, as we learn from the Jackson papers. Mrs. Logan, a colored woman, mother of a family of nine children, in a fit of mental derangement attempted the murder of her whole family. In the absence of her husband, she called all her children into the house—the oldest being but 14 years of age, and forbid their going out. Presently she took one of her children, went out, and threw it in the well, then another, and so on until she had carried out four. The older children, having their fears excited, followed their mother with the fourth victim [illegible] into the well. They tried to interfere, but were unable, the insane mother making most desperate efforts to drown them, failing in this, she threw herself down upon her dead and drowning children. The well was curbless, some 12 feet deep, with about four feet of water. While in the well, her children from the top handed her down a pole, to which the mother and one child clung, and were drawn [illegible]. The remaining three were drowned—all efforts of the neighbors to resuscitate them proving unavailing.

Pecuniary troubles, it is said, induced the temporary aberration of mind, which led to this dreadful tragedy.

FAT WOMAN.—The Jefferson City (Mo.) Inquirer says:—

> There is now in this city a woman 22 years of age whose weight is 518 pounds, and this enormous amount of flesh on a very small-boned frame, and only 5 feet 1 inch in height. You who have any curiosity in such matters, should not neglect this opportunity to gratify it. [illegible] "This is a great country," and these are [illegible] people in it, and this is one of the biggest kind.

The Fact and Philosophy of Spiritualism.

J. TIFFANY, OF NEW YORK, HAS JUST entered upon a course of lectures upon this subject at Light Guard Hall, corner of Randolph and State streets, where he will continue his lectures every Sunday morning and evening for three months. He at all times invites discussion, questions, &c., from those who are present at his lectures, and pledges himself to answer, "satisfy" all questions or confess his inability to do so. And he especially invites all clergymen to be present and interrogate him upon any and all questions pertaining to the subjects of Religion, Theology and Spiritualism. For the purpose of giving the clergy an opportunity to hear and take part in his lectures. Mr. T. will hold special meetings for their accommodation, during the week, if they desire it. je18-3t-x37

Mechanics' Institute.

Proposals for a Lot for a Hall.

THE BOARD OF THE MECHANICS' INSTITUTE have concluded that it is expedient to establish a scientific and mechanical Museum, as a permanent attachment to the Institute, and as a substitute for regular Fairs; and for this purpose it is necessary that a suitable building for a Hall, Museum, Library, &c., should be erected. They therefore invite, from the property holders of Chicago, proposals for the sale or lease to the Institute of a suitable lot for the purpose. As the Board wish to leave margin for the expression of opinion in regard to eligibility of location, they place no restriction to locality, size of lot, or terms of sale. Propositions from any who think they have a suitable lot for the purpose, are desired, which must state price, terms of payment, how much, if any stock will be taken in the building, or what other inducements will be offered, with the conditions of sale. Proposals desired by the first of July, addressed to the undersigned.

OPTICAL ESTABLISHMENT,
37 Clark Street, Room No. 2, Up stairs. 37
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.
Pure French Crystal, Scotch & Brazil Pebble
SPECTACLES.

PURE AND FINE FRENCH BI-CONVEX and Bi-Concave Crystal Glasses, set in fine Gold, Silver and Steel bows. Pure Brazil and Scotch Pebble Spectacles, ground on the Parisian principle, set in fine Gold, Silver, and Steel Bows. Eye Shades, Spy Glasses, Reading and Magnifying Glasses. The above mentioned Spectacles and Eye-Glasses for long and short sighted persons, selected to suit the eyes, according to the exact principles of the Science of Optics. All diseases of the eye, dimness and weakness of vision, inflamation, amaurosis, partial or total blindness, or cataracts, cured and strength and clearness of sight restored, at the Paris Optical Establishment 37 Clark street. A good assortment of Opera Glasses, Microscopes, Telescopes, Perspectives, Jewelers and Watchmaker's Glasses constantly kept on hand.

Short or long sighted persons residing at a distance requiring Spectacles, and not being able to attend personally, can be supplied with them, safely and quickly, through the mail or by express, by forwarding to me answers to the following questions: First—State your age, state of health and occupation. Second—State if you want spectacles to see distant objects clearly, or for reading and writing only, or for both purposes. Third—State the exact number of inches your eyes are distant from this print, while reading it quickly and with ease.

The price for my different qualities of Spectacles are as follows:—Pure Crystal or Pebble Glasses set in fine gold bows, $15, $10 and $8; in silver bows 5, 4 and 3 dollars; in steel bows, 4, 3, 2 and 1 dollar a pair. By enclosing one of the above sums, together with 4 postage stamps in your (registered) letter, you will receive by return mail a pair of spectacles or eye glasses of the quality you paid for, and of the proper power to suit your sight.

Persons desiring additional information on any of the above subjects, or in regard to diseased eyes, &c., must invariably enclose a post stamp in their letter, otherwise it will not be answered.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES.—CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—After several years experimenting in the manufacturing of Gin, I fortunately succeeded, in the year 1847, in making a discovery in its manufacture by which it was deprived of acrid and inflamatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Schiedam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps." Schiedam is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—Cogue. Dram—Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapp been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the liquor mixers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Schiedam Gin, Schiedam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c., and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Eastern States on account of the cheapness of the articles, a merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud by selling the spurious articles, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of the community in which he lives will aid me in ferreting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such men should be nailed to the pillory for popular execration.

WOLFE'S SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS is made from Barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and counteracting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers and settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-west are peculiarly liable—the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature on the label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.

CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE.—This great chemical dissolver has taken precedence over every other preparation for changing the color of the hair. The public have realized by experience the important fact, that while it imparts the most perfect and natural black or brown, it does not impair the softness and elasticity or arrest the growth of the hair. Free from all caustic ingredients, it neither stains the skin of the head, dries up the moisture circulating through the fibres, nor emits any unpleasant odor. The application is given and finished in ten minutes, in any weather, and the rich natural hue imparted to the hair of the head, the whiskers and moustaches is uniform to a shade in every filament. Hence its popularity, and the wonderful rapidity with which it has superseded other dyes, throughout the United States.

DAILY TRIBUNE.
FRIDAY MORNING ... JUNE 19.

KANSAS AFFAIRS.

Message of Governor Charles Robinson,

DELIVERED AT TOPEKA, JUNE 11, 1857.

Fellow Citizens of the Senate and House of Representatives:—

You are again convened together at the expiration of the recess taken by you in January last. You meet under circumstances scarcely less difficult, and no less embarrassing, than have characterized the previous meetings of this Legislature. But your duties under the Constitution are plain, and the necessity for action imperative.

As the representatives of the people, you are here to do the work for which they selected you. The bitter experience of the past has brought nothing with it that could relieve you of your responsibility. Every step in that experience has shown the necessity for you to do your work, and that you with calmness, wisdom and determination prepare those bulwarks on which the people may rest their constitutional rights, as American citizens, and keep the State Government in readiness for admission into the Union.

As it becomes my duty to recommend such measures as I may deem expedient for your action, and to communicate to you the condition of affairs in the State, I shall endeavor briefly to do so.

Since I sent my message to you, when you first convened in March, 1856, many important and startling events have marked and disturbed the current of affairs. The horrors of actual warfare have existed in our midst. Towns and cities have been sacked and burned, and our citizens have been brutally murdered on the highways and in their homes. A hostile enemy on our Eastern border, has poured in predatory band after band, and army after army, with the design of harrassing our citizens, and completing the subjugation they had begun.

The General Government, which still assumes the power of protection over us, has basely used that power as the screen under which it has rendered aid and comfort to our enemies, and strengthened the hands of those foreign invaders who still pretend to hold the political power of the people, which they usurped. Nor have your labors or your persons been exempt. Lawless arrests have been made of your members, and also of Executive Officers, by men who, although they possessed some power, and in many instances, held positions in connection with the Federal Courts, acted with irregularity and in defiance of even the rules which they professed to respect.

A large and necessary portion of the labors of your codifying committee was destroyed, with much other property at Lawrence, in May 1856, when that place was pillaged and partly burned, by a mob brought there by a United States Marshal. When your bodies met pursuant to adjournment, in July last, your assembly was broken up, by a large force of United State troops, in battle array, who drove you hence in gross violation of those constitutional rights which it was their duty to have protected.—When you again convened in January last, at your regular session, your proceedings were interfered with, by a deputy marshal and many of your members arrested.

I do not propose entering into a minute detail of all the unhappy occurrences that have marked the past year—occurrences which have stamped a page of infamy on the history of the country. Let me refer you to the comprehensive address prepared by a committee of the convention that assembled in this place on the 10th of March last, for those particulars, an enumeration of which would absorb too much of your time. Suffice it to say, that owing to these causes the State Government is not fully organized, and waits in urgent necessity for the completion of your work.

The period for which you were elected is drawing to a close. No provision for taking the census has been made, and no election law adopted. Without these, your function in the government will expire, and with it the power of re-producing it. I cannot think that you will, in any contingency incur the reproach of leaving helpless the people who trusted you, or compelling them to recur through original action to their primary power, for those needed steps which it is your duty to supply.

In my message sent to you in March, 1856, I enumerated the outlines of the legislation it would be incumbent on you to frame and adopt. Let me respectfully refer you to that document for these details.

There is one subject of great moment for our present and future prosperity. The public land in our midst still belongs to the General Government. To secure these lands, or all of them that can be obtained, is a matter to which we should devote no ordinary attention. The policy hitherto adopted towards other new States, gives us just grounds to look to Congress for a grant of all the public lands in our midst. To your enterprise and endurance its value can be traced, and to you it rightly belongs. The sale of much of our most valuable land for the behalf of the Indians, give an additional claim on the government for the remainder. Surely the General Government will not seek to make a speculation on the bones and sinews of the struggling pioneers, who seek to add another State to the confederacy. Let us respectfully urge upon the assembled wisdom of Congress our claim for donations of these lands, and let us press these claims before the Government has passed its title to all the valuable portions, into the hands of speculators. No donation should, by its terms, conflict with the claim of a squatter on the soil.

The inanimate frame work of a Territorial Government still exists in Kansas. While the popular branch of Congress has accepted our application for admission into the Union, the Senate has still withheld its approval. In this isolated condition, our rights as American citizens, under the Constitution, and our inherent rights as men remain to us. The Territorial Governor, recently sent among us by the Federal Government, in his inaugural, has truly said:

> "It is the people of Kansas who, in forming their State Constitution, are to declare the terms on which they propose to enter the Union. Congress cannot compel the people of a Territory to enter the Union as a State, or change without their consent, the Constitution framed by the people. Congress, it is true, may for constitutional reasons refuse admission, but the State alone, in forming her constitution, can prescribe the terms on which she will enter the Union.—This power of the people of a Territory in forming a State Constitution, is one of vital importance, especially in the States carved out of the public domain. Nearly all the lands of Kansas are public lands, and most of them are occupied by Indian tribes. These lands are the property of the Federal Government, but their right is exclusively that of a proprietor, carrying with it no political power."

The doctrine here enunciated is only what has been established by precedent, and reiterated time and again. In it we have a right to form a State Constitution, and of necessity the complete State organization, for which its specific terms must provide. As Congress has neither the right to frame a Constitution for us, nor to "change" the same, it must be apparent to all, they have no more power to destroy it when created. Governor Walker goes even farther than this, and farther than we have ever proposed going, for he says that "the State alone in forming her constitution, can prescribe the terms on which she will enter the Union," clearly implying that she may enter the Union or not. Under these circumstances it is clearly apparent that the Federal Government has only sent Gov. Walker as a Territorial officer to Kansas, because we have hitherto failed, or been unable to complete the organization we have begun. In the absence of the full and vital powers of government adopted by the people, this is merely an endeavor to carry out the implied protection.

What renders this more unhappy, is the fact that the federal authorities have never yet been able to afford us such protection, and as there is no Territorial law here, recognized by the people as such, the executive function is a mockery.

Your first consideration is the necessities of the people, but beyond that it is your duty to act with promptness, so as to relieve these Federal appointees of a merely nominal duty, that must be embarrassing and disrespectful to them, whilst the unsettled state of affairs conveys an impressive reproach to those Republican institutions on which all our hopes as a people centre. In the Inaugural to which I have referred, there is a recommendation that our people forsake the government they have adopted, and under the management of usurping, pretended officials, seek to do over again what has been done.

We do not think that any serious or generally entertained desire exists among our people to do so, and, while opinions from such a source may be entitled to respect, it is at least unfortunate that a course of action in relation to the Constitution, should be pointed out in the official address of a Federal appointee, who, in that very address, urges the right of the people, and their right alone, to take steps for a State government. It is as clearly evident from that address itself, that Governor Walker has not been sufficiently conversant with affairs in Kansas, to warrant the expression of opinion on so grave a matter. In that document he assures us that we shall have everything over which his executive function has no control, and refrains from expressing any opinion on the only points for which we could entertain hopes of his action. You are doubtless aware that Acting Territorial Governor Stanton, issued a proclamation containing an apportionment of representation for a delegate convention. The [illegible] apportionment leaves nearly one half of Kansas without any representation, as no census had been taken there by any one, they will of course have no privilege of even voting.

Had there been no State Constitution in Kansas, had a fraudulent, pretended Territorial Legislature never originated the steps to which this Inaugural refers, had that action come simply from the people as it legitimately should, there would still have been the strongest reasons why all good men should refrain from participating in an act so grossly fraudulent and despotic as this pretended census, and partial apportionment under it. In any event, such proceedings will inevitably fall to the ground as lacking in that great essential, the popular will, which alone could give it vitality.

Although that strange appointment which deliberately anticipates disfranchising one half of the people, was issued a week previous to the Inaugural of Gov. Walker, there was not the slightest allusion to it in that document.—And yet the evidence of the fact was of easy access to him, and he was not ignorant of it. What does he mean when he says, "the law has performed its entire appropriate function when it extends to the people the right of suffrage."

Has it done so? or, is Gov. Walker ignorant of the fact that it has not? He adds:

> "Throughout our whole Union, however, and wherever free government prevails, those who abstain from the exercise of the right of suffrage, authorize those who do vote to act for them in that contingency; and the absentees are as much bound under the law and constitution, where there is no fraud or violence, by the act of the majority of those who do vote, as though all had participated in the election."

It would be needless to tell you that such a position however good, is quite inapplicable to this so called census law, and all the proceedings under it. It originates in an usurping fraud. It is not a proposed election to ascertain the wishes of the people but a foregone conclusion, every part of which is carefully framed to accomplish a certain result. But if its applicability cannot be found in these proceedings, let me suggest where it can be applied. In the proceedings under which the State Constitution was framed and ratified, all the actual voters had the privilege of participating. Men of all parties did do so, and if any portion declined, it was because they feared to hazard the policy they were trying to thrust on Kansas to a popular vote.

How are we to reconcile the two positions of this federal inaugural—first that the people alone must freely and fairly make or change their Constitution, and secondly that "The "Territorial Legislature is the power ordained "for this purpose by the United States and in "opposing it you oppose the authority of the "Federal Government."

Well knowing that the complaint that the Legislature referred to did not derive its power from the people of Kansas, he makes up for its lack of popular legitimacy thus: "That Legislature was called into being by the Congress of 1854, and is recognized in the very latest Congressional Legislation. It is recognized by the present Chief Magistrate of the Union."

There is not much of "popular sovereignty" and "self-government" here. This usurpation is repudiated by the people, but it is "recognized by "Congress" and the "President." Its pretended enactments are a dead letter. All the official proclamations and bulletins of Presidents and Territorial Governors cannot make them law, for nothing is law or can have the authority thereof save the legitimately expressed will of the people. But if the Federal authorities cannot make their usurpations laws, they seem bent on preventing the people from having any law unless they will stoop to accept of this. Never let it be said that the people of Kansas were so recreant to the principles of self-government as to accept the laws thrown upon them by a body of invaders. Such a fatal precedent would sow the seed that would spring up to the ultimate ruin of our government. An insignificant minority in Kansas may cooperate with the invaders outside to perpetuate this usurpation, but as Gov. Walker says: "The minority, in resisting the will of the majority, may involve Kansas again in civil war; they may bring upon her reproach and obloquy, and destroy her progress and prosperity; they may keep her for years out of the Union and, in the whirlwind of agitation, sweep away the Government itself; but Kansas can never be brought into the Union with or without slavery, except by a previous solemn decision, fully, freely and fairly made by a majority of her people in voting for or against the adoption of her State Constitution."

This has been done in the adoption of our State Constitution—has been done in accordance with the very principles and requirements of this inaugural itself, and we may well ask in the language of Gov. Walker, "Why then should this just, peaceful, and Constitutional mode of settlement meet with such opposition from any quarter?"

I cannot dismiss this Inaugural, sent amongst us by the Federal authorities and Territorial Governor, without noticing one or two other points. He says there is a clause in our Constitution forever excluding the African race bond or free from Kansas. There is no such clause in our Constitution, and it is to be regretted that Gov. Walker who talks so much about the "will of the people," should not have given a Constitution emanating from them, a more careful investigation. At the time the Constitution was submitted to the people, a resolution from the people to the first Legislature was also submitted. This was neither "in" nor connected with the Constitution, and has just as much force as the first Legislature may choose to attach to it. It originated in an anxious desire to show favor to the peculiar institutions of "her sister States"—especially her immediate neighbor, the State of Missouri. And how has this compromise spirit been met? By invasion, usurpation, rapine, fire and sword. Such clauses as that which he has sarcastically said were in our Constitution, he expressly denies in another paragraph, to be in it.

How much more deeply must he feel the interests of Missouri than Kansas, is apparent when he recalls the debt of gratitude that the people of Kansas owe that State which has stripped our people of every Constitutional right, has involved us in the confusion of civil discord, and which is trying by the aid of General Government to place its feet upon our neck to-day. The first cause of a political struggle in Kansas was whether Kansas should be a free or slave State.—After the invasion of 1855 a still more fearful issue arose whether the people of Kansas should have a right to govern themselves. It is for this we struggle. The rights of the people, the glory of Republicanism on earth, the integrity of our Government are all wrapt up in the issue—Truly we can say, "never was so momentous a question submitted to the decision of any people, and we cannot avoid the alternatives now before us of glory or of shame."

The rights of a free people we love, the Union we regard, the integrity of the government we will maintain. The devotion of the people of Kansas to the Union is evidenced by the stern reality of their sufferings and their endurance. In wisdom and devotion the people of Kansas will struggle to preserve the Union should they ever be permitted to enjoy the bonds of sisterhood, they will do so by endeavoring to make the Union worth preserving, without which it will inevitably crumble in pieces. We may with sacrilegious hand tear from the tomb of Washington or Jefferson some perishable relic of the mortality of those who while living, were devoted to liberty and reverenced the claims of God and humanity and under the cover of the awe-striking symbol, incite the reluctant representatives of the people to acts disfranchising American citizens, robbing Republicanism of all that is good in it. We may shout "the Union," "the Union," over acts of the most reckless despotism, and hurry our Government into oligarchy and anarchy under the delusion, but the delusion will not save us from the penalty of our folly and our crime.

Let us then preserve the Union by maintaining the integrity of Republicanism.

It is an universal maxim that usurpers never voluntarily relinquish their power. Under whatever guise it may come, the action of those who now pretend to hold territorial power, will be for the continuation of that power.

For Gov. Walker to urge us into that flimsy trap in which they hope to ensnare our people is wrong; and to talk to us, in that connection of fairness and justice is to add insult to wrong.

While the great principle for which we have to contend, is to maintain our right to self-government, the second consideration of preserving Kansas a Free State is not to be lost sight of. It is of importance that the principles of Freedom should prevail, not only because the people have willed it, but because it is good policy, and above all because it is right. Where would be our prosperity if slavery were entailed upon us? Where would the towns and cities, the railroads and the commerce be, with such a plague-spot on our energies? The owls would hoot through the cities, now laid out in Kansas, the railroads be confined to charters of usurped legislation.

The industrious settler would shrink from the contamination of slave labor that would degrade his manhood and his honest toil. Nor can we trace all the reasons by which the unerring finger of a just Providence guides the policy of every systematic wrong to a sure decay, and entails the curse that there should be no prosperity in the land that is stained by the tears and watered by the unpaid sweat of any portion of the children of man.

There is indeed an "isothermal line" and a law of the thermometer "which may make slave labor comparatively profitable or unprofitable," but there is unhappily no "law of the thermometer" to prevent infatuated slavery propagandists from attempting to establish the institution, where wise policy says it never should be. It will therefore be an important duty in us to guard carefully against all the steps in such an insidious design; the more so that "policy" and an "isothermal law" are united with the claims of Republicanism and justice.

Under these circumstances we can contemplate the duties before us and with judicious calmness undertake them. We struggle for our birthright and we must not sell it for a "mess of pottage." The eyes of the country are on us, for our cause is the common cause of all who love Republicanism. In our defeat the principle on which the Government rests will sustain a shock; in our victory it will take root and be perpetuated. To you is confided no common share of the task. To you will be meted no common share of the glory of victory or the misfortune of defeat. Be true and we shall triumph. Our task is difficult, let us meet its responsibilities in full reliance on the Wisdom of Him who is the God of Justice. A future of prosperity and usefulness is before the people of Kansas. A great State is rapidly expanding into prosperous existence. May we hope to establish in it a Government not unworthy of this civilized age and our Republican Institutions.
CHARLES ROBINSON.

THE UNDERSIGNED IS NOW PREPARED to sell at private sale, to parties desiring first-class Residence Property, and willing to improve immediately, Two Hundred Lots in Blocks five, six, seven, eight, nine, twelve and thirteen in Union Park, Second Addition, in West Chicago.
That the advantages of the West Division are fast becoming appreciated is evident from the fact that its population is shown by the census returns to double itself every three years. If that rate of increase should continue, the number of its inhabitants will amount in six years to one hundred and fifty thousand. It contains most of the high ground, is protected from the east winds, and on the healthy side of the city, where the south-west winds of the hot season bring pure air from the prairie, instead of the noxious vapors of the river, into which nearly all our sewers empty themselves. JUST PUBLISHED,

THE UNFORTUNATE'S GUIDE, GIVING directions where to obtain Medical aid, and containing astounding facts and thrilling and interesting information never before in print. By Doctor WM. THOMSON. [illegible] It is no "catch penny," but abounds in startling and interesting truths, extracted from the author's diary and case books, the result of thirty years' practice in all climates, in the treatment of diseases of the sexual organs, which gave him better opportunities than those possessed by the Roman Catholic Confessor, to look behind the curtain.

Address Dr. Wm. Thomson, Box 72, Chicago, Illinois.

Doctor Thomson's Office and Consulting Rooms, 239 Lake street, Chicago, Ill., where every species of Private Disease is treated upon principles founded on the solid basis of science and sound philosophy. Those afflicted with Spermatorrhea (seminal emissions), or any private disease, before applying to any physician for medical assistance, should obtain a copy of the Unfortunate's Guide, and thus be enabled to escape the disastrous consequences of quackery.

Dr. Thomson's Grand Anatomical Museum adjoins his office. Wednesday from 12 M. to 4 P.M. reserved for Ladies. Patients admitted free of Charge. Boys and children never admitted.

Chicago, June 1, 1856-1y

DR. HUBBELL'S
MEDICAL INFIRMARY,
69 RANDOLPH STREET, 69
Opposite the Revere Hotel.

TO YOUNG MEN AND OTHERS.—NERVOUS Debility and Chronic Diseases, the first and direct consequence of excess and abuse of the sexual system, is a peculiar diseased condition of the seminal organs, which is produced by masturbation. The following disorders, some in one case, some in another, are again the direct consequences of this disease, viz: Seminal Emissions, General Debility and Nervousness, Distaste for Society, Gloomy Presentiments, pain and weakness in the back, impairment of mental vigor and memory, weak and watery eyes, eruptions on the face and body, restlessness of various dreams and unrefreshing sleep, unfitness for marriage relation, improper excitability of the organs, stricture, costiveness, piles, dyspepsia, &c.

To the truth of this, more or less in each case, every sufferer from solitary indulgence can attest. And further, any latent or family predisposition to disease, as scrofula, consumption, apoplexy, rheumatism, epilepsy, imbecility, impotence, insanity &c., is almost surely eventually developed into activity, and is actually the most frequent cause of those maladies in young persons, as proved by the statistics of all countries. And this is equally true of the sexes. Still if taken in time this disease and its consequences is perfectly amenable to treatment.

Dr. Hubbell has for many years past been consulted upon so many and distressing cases of this vice, that his attention has been necessarily much directed to its treatment and cure, and he is happy to add has, beyond his most sanguine expectations, matured a treatment at once safe and certain, and free from painful operations or nauseous medicines.

Think and reflect upon the fact, that an inexperienced physician is worse than none at all, and that it requires constant attention to private diseases to acquire a competent knowledge of their treatment. It is far better to go at once to those who understand the disease in all its minutiae.

Having been long established in this city, he can appeal to all for a certificate of success, which should have great weight with the inexperienced.

Persons living at a distance, by giving a plain statement of their cases, will be attended to punctually, and medicine forwarded by express to all parts of the United States.

Checking Baggage Through

To Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and New York, connecting directly with trains on the Great Pennsylvania Central Railroad, to all Eastern Cities. Also with Cleveland & Columbus Railroad to Cleveland, Dunkirk, Buffalo, Niagara Falls via New York Central and New York and Erie Railroads to New York and Boston.

Persons going East will find this route by far the most desirable, both from the advantages in point of distance, variety and beauty of the country through which the Roads pass, and the less frequent changes of cars, and the annoyances of re-checking baggage, required by other routes.

Facilities for the transportation of Freight and Live Stock by this route, are unsurpassed. Rates as low as by any other route, and with equal despatch.

Tickets for sale at all the principal Ticket Offices in the West, and at the Company's office, No. 30 Dearborn street, opposite Tremont House, Chicago.

Educational.

Collegiate and Commercial Institute.
NEW HAVEN, CONN.

THIS INSTITUTION HAS BEEN IN SUCCESSFUL operation for ten years. It is designed to [illegible] the advantages of mental education that can be anywhere furnished, without losing that attention to health, and that parental supervision and government which the young require.

THE MENTAL TRAINING includes a thorough English, Mathematical, and Scientific Education, in reference to a complete preparation for any business that does not require the instruction of the Law, Medical, or Theological School; a course of Classical Studies, minute, thorough, and as extended as may be desired; a course of Modern Languages, under native teachers; History, and Mental and Political Science.

THE MORAL EDUCATION is secured by the personal influence of the teachers; by a division of the school into families of moderate size, of which the Vice-Principals are the heads; and by graduated, disciplinary measures; by a regular course of study of the Bible, of Moral Science, and of the evidences of Natural and Revealed Religion.

THE PHYSICAL TRAINING consists of a prescribed course of exercises in a large and well furnished gymnasium, under the direction of an accomplished gymnast; and of such an amount of military drilling, under full organization and drill, as will secure bodily vigor, habits of command and obedience, and a kind and degree of knowledge which may be essential to the full discharge of the duties of a citizen. Care is also taken to encourage wholesome sports, bathing and rowing; and opportunities are furnished for occasional pedestrian excursions into the country. Students are admitted at any time of the year.

Catalogues, with full information, will be furnished on application to the Principal,

Contract for Supply of Marine Hospital.
CUSTOM HOUSE, CHICAGO,
Collector's Office, May 1st, 1857.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, THAT Sealed Proposals, accompanied by proper guarantees, according to forms to be furnished on application at this office, will be received therein until 12 o'clock meridian, on the first Tuesday in June next, for the Supply of the Marine Hospital in this city with the articles of Provisions, Medicines, etc., enumerated in said forms.

The quantities stated are estimated with reference to the usual number of patients in the Hospital, but the United States reserves the right to take more or less of said articles, accordingly as they may be actually required.

If the articles delivered at the Hospital are not, in the judgment of the Physician, of the best quality and adapted to the Hospital, he will be at liberty to reject the same, to purchase other articles in their stead, and to charge the Contractor with any excess in the cost over the contract prices.

The United States reserves the right to accept the Proposals for the whole or any portion of the articles specified.

Lake and Canal Navigation.
NEW OSWEGO LINE.

WESTERN MERCHANTS AND FORWARDERS of Property and Merchandise to and from the West and North-west, are respectfully notified that the proprietor of the above line has effected such arrangements as will enable him to offer superior inducements to shippers of every description of Merchandise and Freight from New York to all ports on Lake Ontario and the Upper Lakes, with quicker dispatch and at as advantageous rates as any other line.

Upon the resumption of navigation, a line of A 1 Lake Boats, of the largest class, will be put on to transport freight from New York to Oswego without transhipment, and there connect with propellers and sail vessels on the Lakes. No property will be warehoused till it has reached its destination, as a vessel will always be in readiness at Oswego so that Freight may be transferred directly from the canal boats on their arrival.

The Proprietor will at all times endeavor to attain the quickest possible dispatch, and parties who have heretofore had their goods shoved away for weeks in a warehouse or depot in transitu, will find that such unwarrantable delays will be entirely avoided by the NEW OSWEGO LINE.

All Freight intended to go forward by Propeller should be marked "STEAM."

North Shore Line Steamboats.
DETROIT AND BUFFALO.

THE NEW AND MAGNIFICENT STEAMERS PLYMOUTH ROCK, WESTERN WORLD, and MISSISSIPPI will form this line the ensuing season, and commence running immediately upon the opening of navigation, as follows:

PLYMOUTH ROCK,
P. J. RALPH, Commander.
Will leave Detroit—Mondays and Thursdays.
" " Buffalo—Tuesdays and Fridays.

WESTERN WORLD,
J. S. RICHARDS, Commander.
Will leave Detroit—Wednesdays and Saturdays.
" " Buffalo—Mondays and Thursdays.

MISSISSIPPI,
S. G. LANGLEY, Commander.
Will leave Detroit—Tuesdays and Fridays.
" " Buffalo—Wednesdays and Saturdays.

These steamers are all new, of the largest class, being about 2000 tons each. The Commanders and Officers are gentlemen of great experience and capability. They are fitted up and furnished for the convenience of passengers in a style of comfort and luxury, entirely unequaled, and are in all respects considered the safest and most desirable steamers that sail upon the Western Waters.

For the transportation of Freight, the Line will surpass anything ever before offered to the public, having arrangements with parties between Boston and New York, and all points west of Buffalo to St. Louis, which will enable them to forward goods and merchandise with greater dispatch than has ever yet been attained.

For the transportation of live stock these steamers offer facilities to drovers which cannot be surpassed or equaled.

Shippers of merchandise from the East, should mark packages to the care of C. L. Seymour, Buffalo; merchandise from the West, should be to the care of John Hosmer, Freight Agent, Detroit.
